

Free speech is a fundamental right of all citizens and should be preserved at all costs. If traditional radio would give the listener what it wants, satellite radio would not exist.